

FYLKESMANNEN I OSLO OG VIKEN

APPLICATION FORM APPROVAL OF FOREIGN DIVORCE

Request for documentation: The original divorce document or a confirmed copy. The document must be supplied with legalization or an apostille stamp. Translation from a government approved translator must be attached to the application. (This is not required if the divorce document is in English, German or French).

USE CAPITAL LETTERS:

		Date:
Applicants name:	Name of former wife/husband:
Birth date/national identity number
Applicants actual address or c/o address:
Telephone:

The couples address when the claim for of divorce was filed:
Applicants address:	Address of former wife/husband:
Applicants citizenship (from what date):	Citizenship of former wife/husband:

EXEMPTION OF SPLIT OF PROPERTY

The table below is only to be filled in by the applicant for exemption.

It will be possible to apply for exemption in the following cases:

The time past since the divorce was finalised is less than two years, and the applicant is about to marry again. It will however not be necessary to apply for exemption, if the applicant can present a declaration from the former spouse that a split of private property has been performed, or that there was nothing to split. The declaration must be presented directly to the national register.

The couples last joint estate:
The couples address when the demand of divorce was raised:
The couples address(es) after the divorce: